

Gender Equity Think Tank

Last Modified on 04/02/2024 8:45 am EDT

HBA's Gender Equity Think Tank (GETT; formerly known as the Gender Parity Collaborative) is an award-winning and growing consortium of healthcare and life sciences companies dedicated to accelerating gender parity by fostering and adopting systemic changes in the industry workplace.

Together, Collaborative companies commit to actively defining strategies, measuring performance, creating change, and inspiring others.
